

Science

Topic : Humans-

How does my body keep me alive?

- Explore the role of the circulatory system
- Describe the functions of the heart, blood vessels and blood
- Explain how nutrients and water are transported through the body
- Investigate the effect of exercise, diet, drugs and alcohol on the body
- Plan different types of fair experiments to answer enquiry questions
- Record data and results using a range of recording tools.

Belonging

Geography

Topic : Inventions that changed the World

What challenges do the Australian Aboriginals face?

How do natural disasters change people and their lives

- Describe why natural disasters occur
- Explain the effect of natural disasters and how countries respond to them
- Critically analyse and compare the response of different countries to natural disasters
- Use lines of longitude and latitude
- Research the geographical issues surrounding the Australian Aboriginals
- critically evaluate responses to local geographical issues

The Big Question

Who am I? Where do I fit into the world?

Self-Acceptance

Who am I? ...

Year 6

Spring Term

DISCOVER

Communication

Speaker? Fitting in?

English

Class Novel : Wonder

Is it more important to fit in or to be your true self?

- read fluently and respond critically to literature (VIPERS Strategies)
- analyse, evaluate and criticise a range of uses of language in order to draw out meaning purpose and effect
- talk clearly and confidently about thoughts, opinions and ideas
- listen carefully to others to further inform thinking
- write and present a range of ideas in a wide variety of written forms
- communicate ideas in writing with imagination, variety and accuracy

Commitment

Art

Topic : Portraits and Aboriginal Art

How do artists portray people or themselves through art?

- To explore the work of portrait artists
- To use different techniques, colours and textures when designing and creating portraits
- To use a range of media to create collages
- To explore how Aboriginal people express themselves through art
- To develop printing techniques